INDIVIDUAL PROVIDER INFORMATION ADDENDUM TO THE DISCLOSURE AND INFORMED CONSENT AGREEMENT

As part of your participation in our counseling program, we would like to provide you with specific information about your behavioral health provider. This information is provided in addition to the Pathways Mental Health Services' Disclosure and Informed Consent Agreement.

Provider Name and credentials:

Kaj Kayij-Wint, MA, LMFT, CMHS, MHP

Provider's Credential type and number:

Washington Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist: LF60465812

Supervision of supervision:

As a Marriage and Family Therapist, I am in the process of completing my MFT Approved Supervisor supervision of supervision under an approved supervisor. I have a current supervision agreement with Dr. Tolentino, and I may disclose information about your supervision sessions as part of ongoing supervision of supervision.

Provider's Education, Training, Experience:

I received my Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology at St. Martin's University. I have worked in community mental health services, providing mental health services to children, adolescents, and their families. I now work in private group practice, continuing my work with children, youth, and adults in individual and family counseling.

Type of Services Offered by Provider:

I provide traditional counseling as well as Christian counseling. I provide individual (children, adolescents, and adults), couple, and family counseling services.

Provider's Therapeutic Orientation and Methods Used:

I use a family systems approach to counseling – examining the ways in which some of my difficulties were developed long ago as a way to cope with life's problems during my formative years in my family of origin. I also use cognitive behavioral techniques – examining thought and relationship patterns and what is working and not working, narrative therapy – your story and the impact your past has upon your present, as well as a strengths based approach – what you do well and the things about you that help you handle stress and life's challenges and difficulties.
